Chief, SR Chief, NEA Charlestain the English Chief Chief, Nea Chief, Nea Chie		CLASSIFICATION	DISPATCH SYMBOL AND NO.
Chief, SEA Chief, FE  REDWOOD/PSYCH Passine of Russian Copy of Dr. ZHIVAGO to  For your information  REDWOOD/PSYCH Passine of Russian Copy of Dr. ZHIVAGO to  For your information  REDWOOD/PSYCH Passine of Russian Copy of Dr. ZHIVAGO to  Provided the Sea of the Might pass it on the sea of the Sea of the Might pass it on the Sea of the Sea of the Sea of the Might pass it on the Sea of	DISPATCH
REDWOOD/PSYCH Passains of Russian Copy of Dr. ZHIVAGO to  REDWOOD/PSYCH Passains of Russian Copy of Dr. ZHIVAGO to  REDWOOD REDWOOD  For your information  2. had previously lent an English translation of least and selected and she asked if she might pass it on some of her Iriends.  Said she was certainly free book so on a suggested in a joking manner that she give the book on one of her Russian friends in the Soviet Embasy to read aliscuss. She took the book and nothing more was said until, adving had the book for several weeks;  house one day to tell him that she still had the look for several weeks;  house one day to tell him that she still had the look for several weeks;  house an additional copy.  3. On the 18th when control to the result of the several shear of the sever	Chief CD		HEADQUARTERS FILE NO.
REDWOOD/PSYCH Passing of Russian Copy of Dr. ZHIVAGO to  REDWOOD/PSYCH Passing of Russian Copy of Dr. ZHIVAGO to  REDWOOD/PSYCH Passing of Russian Copy of Dr. ZHIVAGO to  ROBERSO CAN BURGES ON RUSSIAN COPY OF THE RUSSIAN CONTINUATION  REDWOOD AND RUSSIAN COPY OF THE	Chief NEA	•
REDWOOD/PSYCH Passing of Russian Copy of Dr. ZHIVAGO to  RE-USY - GREGGY ONE  Passing of Russian Copy of Dr. ZHIVAGO to  RE-USY - GREGGY ONE    MARKE FOR INCREMS   STORY   MARKE FOR INCREMS   MARKE FOR INCREMS   STORY   MARKE FOR INCREMS   MARKE	Chief, FE
REDWOOD/PSYCH Passing of Russian Copy of Dr. ZHIVAGO to  For your information  2. had previously lent an English translation of more provided by the passing of Russian Copy of Dr. ZHIVAGO to  For your information  2. had previously lent an English translation of and she asked if she might pass it on some of her friends.  3. She took to said she asked if she might pass it on some of her Russian friends in the Soviet Embassy to read and itscuss. She took the book and nothing more was said until aving had the book for several weeks, house one day to tell him that she sive the book and intended to return it very soon, to to worry because he had written to a Triend of his in the states requesting an additional copy.  3. On the 18th when came to came to converse to depart. The the told that he had eccived his additional copy of Dr. Zhivago and asked her if he would trade copies with him since the new copy was discover to have been printed in the Russian language. Triend had sent the book on with a note stating that English anguage copies were unavailable and so he sent on a copy which had obtained at the Brussels Fair in the hope coul ses it. Said he was about to return the book when he had obtained at the Brussels Fair in the hope asset he book on to one of her acquaintances and then discuss twith him or her later on. She was cautioned not to mention hat she had obtained at the Brussels Fair in the hope asset he book to the Russians. Suggested that she ass the book on to one of her acquaintances and then discuss twith him or her later on. She was cautioned not to mention hat she had obtained the book from an American as it might apear to the Russians to be an act of provocation which might accepted the idea with enthusiasm and said hen compare their reactions, after which she would discuss it with him or her later on. She was cautioned not to mention her many provided to her that she coult have been printed to her that she coult her would give the book but we will keep you advised when she discusses the atter with u			DATE
Passing of Russian Copy of Dr. ZHIVAGO to  Robert Passing of Russian Copy of Dr. ZHIVAGO to  Robert Passing of Russian Copy of Dr. ZHIVAGO to  Robert Passing of Russian Copy of Dr. Zhivago and asked the book of and suggested in a joking manner that she give the book on of her Russian friends in the Soviet Embassy to read and itscuss. She took the book and nothing more was said until, aving had the book for several weeks, stopped at house one day to tell him that she still had the book and intended to return it very soon. I told her book and intended to return it very soon.  3. On the 18th when came to rereation was entirely in a light vein until hust cerore they sere to depart. Then told the would trade copies with him since the new copy was discover to have been printed in the Russian language. Triend had sent the book on with a note stating that English anguage copies were unavailable and so he sent on a copy which had been printed in the Russian language. Triend had sent the book on with a note stating that English anguage copies were unavailable and so he sent on a copy which had obtained at the Brussels Fair in the hope coul ses it. Said he was about to return the book when he sas the book to the Russians. Suggested that she sas the book on to one of her acquaintances and then discuss t with him or her later on. She was cautioned not to mention hat she had obtained at he book from an American as it might apear to the Russians to be an act of provocation which might anse her embarrasement. It was explained to her that she could be another than the country of the service of the reacquaintances and then discuss it with him or her later on. She was cautioned not to mention hat she had obtained at her olds to both from an American as it might apear to the Russians to be an act of provocation which might anse her embarrasement. It was explained to her that she could be would be compared the provice than the forwarded to her that the provice than the provice and white Russian and hen compare their reactions, afte			27 February 1959
Passing of Russian Copy of Dr. ZHIVAGO to  Robert Passing of Russian Copy of Dr. ZHIVAGO to  Robert Passing of Russian Copy of Dr. ZHIVAGO to  Robert Passing of Russian Copy of Dr. Zhivago and asked the book of and suggested in a joking manner that she give the book on of her Russian friends in the Soviet Embassy to read and itscuss. She took the book and nothing more was said until, aving had the book for several weeks, stopped at house one day to tell him that she still had the book and intended to return it very soon. I told her book and intended to return it very soon.  3. On the 18th when came to rereation was entirely in a light vein until hust cerore they sere to depart. Then told the would trade copies with him since the new copy was discover to have been printed in the Russian language. Triend had sent the book on with a note stating that English anguage copies were unavailable and so he sent on a copy which had been printed in the Russian language. Triend had sent the book on with a note stating that English anguage copies were unavailable and so he sent on a copy which had obtained at the Brussels Fair in the hope coul ses it. Said he was about to return the book when he sas the book to the Russians. Suggested that she sas the book on to one of her acquaintances and then discuss t with him or her later on. She was cautioned not to mention hat she had obtained at he book from an American as it might apear to the Russians to be an act of provocation which might anse her embarrasement. It was explained to her that she could be another than the country of the service of the reacquaintances and then discuss it with him or her later on. She was cautioned not to mention hat she had obtained at her olds to both from an American as it might apear to the Russians to be an act of provocation which might anse her embarrasement. It was explained to her that she could be would be compared the provice than the forwarded to her that the provice than the provice and white Russian and hen compare their reactions, afte	BEDWOOD /Deven
For your information  2. had previously lent an English translation of the book to and she asked if she might pass it on a some of her friends.  2. some of her friends.  3 said she was certainly free od os o and suggested in a joking manner that she give the book on one of her Russian friends in the Soviet Embasy to read and inscuss. She took the book and nothing more was said until, laving had the book for several weeks;  3 house one day to tell him that she still had the book and intended to return it very son.  3. On the leth when came to receive they rere to depart.  3. On the leth when light vein until nust cerore they rere to depart.  4 ceceived his additional copy of Dr. Zhivago and asked her if the would trade copies with him since the new copy was discover to have been printed in the Russian language.  7 riend had sent the book on with a note stating that English anguage copies were unavailable and so he sent on a copy which he had obtained at the Brussels Fair in the hope couls will be a said he was about to return the book when he assing the book to the Russians.  4 said he was about to return the book when he assing the book to the Russians.  5 said he was about to return the book when he assing the book to the Russians.  5 said he was cautioned not to mention hat she had obtained the book from an American as it might apear to the Russians to be an act of provocation which might ause her embarrassment. It was explained to her that she coulc them that  6 and the resulting the reactions, after which she would discuss it the hook but we will keep you advised when she discusses the atter with us.  5 Repetition:  6 Repetition:  7 February 1959  1 Stribution:	Passing of Russian	Convert Dr. 74TWACO +-
had previously lent an English translation of the book to and she asked if she might pass it on said she was certainly free to do so and suggested in a joking manner that she give the book on one of her Russian friends in the Soviet Embassy to read and discuss. She took the book and nothing more was said until, naving had the book for several weeks, house one day to tell him that she still had the book and intended to return it very soon. Told her book and intended to return it very soon. Told her book and intended to return it very soon. Told her book and intended to return it very soon. Told her book and intended to return it very soon. Told her book and intended to return it very soon. Told her book and intended to return it very soon. Told her book and intended to return it told with the book of the previous discussion was entirely in a light vein until must before they be depart. The book of the book on with a note stating that English anguage copies were unavailable and so he sent on a copy which he had obtained at the Brussels Fair in the hope couls sent the book on with a note stating that English anguage copies were unavailable and so he sent on a copy which he had obtained at the Brussels Fair in the hope couls sent to book on to one of her acquaintances and then discuss the book on to one of her acquaintances and then discuss twith him or her later on. She was cautioned not to mention hat she had obtained the book from an American as it might apear to the Russians to be an act of provocation which might ause her embarrassment. It was explained to her that she could her that air and purchased the copy which she would discuss it it it is a compare their reactions, after which she would discuss it it it is a compare their reactions, after which she would discuss it it it is well as a compare their reactions, after which she would discuss it it it is it.  When to the Brussels Fair which she would discuss it it is it.  When to the Brussels Fair which she would discuss it it is it.  When to the Brussels Fa	RE OI RUSSIAN	coby or pr. vulvado to	NO INDEXING REQUIRED
2. had previously lent an English translation of the book to and she asked if she might pass it on so some of her friends. Said she was certainly free to do so and suggested in a joking manner that she give the book on one of her Russian friends in the Soviet Embassy to read and iscuss. She took the book and nothing more was said until, laving had the book for several weeks, stopped at hook and intended to return it very soon. told her lot to worry because he had written to a Irrend of his in the states requesting an additional copy.  3. On the 18th when reresation was entirely in a light vein until must before they rere to depart. then told that he had received his additional copy of Dr. Zhivago and asked her if the would trade copies with him since the new copy was discover to have been printed in the Russian language. Triend had sent the book on with a note stating that English her had obtained at the Brussels Fair in the hope coul said he was about to return the book when he had obtained at the Brussels Fair in the hope coul said he was about to return the book when he assing the book to the Russians.  The membered and the previous discussion concerning assing the book to the Russians.  assing the book to the Russians.  assing the book to the Russians.  The manner that she had obtained the book from an American as it might aperate the Russians to be an act of provocation which might went to the Russians to be an act of provocation which might were accepted the idea with enthusiasm and said men compare their reactions, after which she would discuss it it in the would give the book but a Soviet and White Russian and hen compare their reactions, after which she would discuss it it in the provocation which might went to the Brussel at and purchased the provocation which might h		on
had previously lent an English translation of the book to and she asked if she might pass it on said she was certainly free to do so and suggested in a joking manner that she give the book one of her Russian friends in the Soviet Embassy to read and inscuss. She took the book and nothing more was said until, having had the book for several weeks, house one day to tell him that she still had the book and intended to return it very soon, told her lot to worry because he had written to a Iriend of his in the states requesting an additional copy.  3. On the 18th when reresation was entirely in a light vein until sust before they rere to depart. then told the received his additional copy of Dr. Zhivago and asked her if the would trade copies with him since the new copy was discover to have been printed in the Russian language. That English anguage copies were unavailable and so he sent on a copy which he had obtained at the Brussels Fair in the hope coult see it. said he was about to return the book when he enast the book to the Russians. Suggested that she ass the book on to one of her acquaintances and then discuss twith him or her later on. She was cautioned not to mention hat she had obtained the book from an American as it might apear to the Russians to be an act of provocation which might ausse her embarrassment. It was explained to her that she could me would give the book to both a Soviet and White Russian and hen compare their reactions, after which she would discuss it it it. We have no idea to whom when the will give he book but we will keep you advised when she discusses the atter with us.
had previously lent an English translation of the book to and she asked if she might pass it on said she was certainly free to do so and suggested in a joking manner that she give the book one of her Russian friends in the Soviet Embassy to read and inscuss. She took the book and nothing more was said until, having had the book for several weeks, house one day to tell him that she still had the book and intended to return it very soon, told her lot to worry because he had written to a Iriend of his in the states requesting an additional copy.  3. On the 18th when reresation was entirely in a light vein until sust before they rere to depart. then told the received his additional copy of Dr. Zhivago and asked her if the would trade copies with him since the new copy was discover to have been printed in the Russian language. That English anguage copies were unavailable and so he sent on a copy which he had obtained at the Brussels Fair in the hope coult see it. said he was about to return the book when he enast the book to the Russians. Suggested that she ass the book on to one of her acquaintances and then discuss twith him or her later on. She was cautioned not to mention hat she had obtained the book from an American as it might apear to the Russians to be an act of provocation which might ausse her embarrassment. It was explained to her that she could me would give the book to both a Soviet and White Russian and hen compare their reactions, after which she would discuss it it it. We have no idea to whom when the will give he book but we will keep you advised when she discusses the atter with us.	28 Nove	mbon 1059
che book to and she asked if she might pass it on some of her friends. Said she was certainly free to do so and suggested in a joking manner that she give the book one of her Russian friends in the Soviet Embassy to read and inscuss. She took the book and nothing more was said until, house one day to tell him that she still had the book and intended to return it very soon, to worry because he had written to a rriend of his in the states requesting an additional copy.  3. On the leth when came to conversation was entirely in a light vein until ust before they were to depart. Then told then told trade copies with him since the new cory was discover to have been printed in the Russian language. Triend had sent the book on with a note stating that English anguage copies were unavailable and so he sent on a copy which he had obtained at the Brussels Fair in the hope could be assing the book on to one of her acquaintances and then discuss twith him or her later on. She was cautioned not to mention hat she had obtained the book from an American as it might apear to the Russians to be an act of provocation which might ause her embarrassment. It was explained to her that she could be had obtained the book from an American as it might apear to the Russians to be an act of provocation which might ause her embarrassment. It was explained to her that she could lell them that are nown and the previous discussion concerning which might ause her embarrassment. It was explained to her that she could lell them that we would give the book to both a Soviet and White Russian and her compare their reactions, after which she would discuss it in the look but we will keep you advised when she discusses the atter with us.  7 February 1959  istribution:  SRA 2 FE NEA 2  FE NEA 2  FE NEA 2	, 20 NOVE
che book to and she asked if she might pass it on some of her friends. Said she was certainly free to do so and suggested in a joking manner that she give the book one of her Russian friends in the Soviet Embassy to read and inscuss. She took the book and nothing more was said until, house one day to tell him that she still had the book and intended to return it very soon, to worry because he had written to a rriend of his in the states requesting an additional copy.  3. On the leth when came to conversation was entirely in a light vein until ust before they were to depart. Then told then told trade copies with him since the new cory was discover to have been printed in the Russian language. Triend had sent the book on with a note stating that English anguage copies were unavailable and so he sent on a copy which he had obtained at the Brussels Fair in the hope could be assing the book on to one of her acquaintances and then discuss twith him or her later on. She was cautioned not to mention hat she had obtained the book from an American as it might apear to the Russians to be an act of provocation which might ause her embarrassment. It was explained to her that she could be had obtained the book from an American as it might apear to the Russians to be an act of provocation which might ause her embarrassment. It was explained to her that she could lell them that are nown and the previous discussion concerning which might ause her embarrassment. It was explained to her that she could lell them that we would give the book to both a Soviet and White Russian and her compare their reactions, after which she would discuss it in the look but we will keep you advised when she discusses the atter with us.  7 February 1959  istribution:  SRA 2 FE NEA 2  FE NEA 2  FE NEA 2	· .	·
os one of her Russian friends in the Soviet Embassy to read and liscuss. She took the book and nothing more was said until, laving had the book for several weeks, stopped at hook and intended to return it very soon. It told her not to worry because he had written to a Irlend of his in the states requesting an additional copy.  3. On the 18th when came to conversation was entirely in a light vein until just before they were to depart. It then told that he had ecceived his additional copy of Dr. Zhivago and asked her if the would trade copies with him since the new copy was discover to have been printed in the Russian language. The land obtained at the Brussels Fair in the hope could be had obtained at the Brussels Fair in the hope cassing the book to the Russians.  The emembered and the previous discussion concerning assing the book to the Russians.  The was about to return the book when he east the book on to one of her acquaintances and then discuss the with him or her later on. She was cautioned not to mention hat she had obtained the book from an American as it might appear to the Russians to be an act of provocation which might ause her embarrassment. It was explained to her that she could be not a copy which says had obtained the book from an American as it might appear to the Russians to be an act of provocation which might ause her embarrassment. It was explained to her that she could be not to Russians to be an act of provocation which might ause her embarrassment. It was explained to her that she could be not to Russians to be an act of provocation which might are accepted the idea with enthusiasm and said me would give the book to both a Soviet and White Russian and hen compare their reactions, after which she would discuss it ith we have no idea to whom will give he book but we will keep you advised when she discusses the atter with us.  The province of her accepted the idea with enthusiasm and said the compared their reactions, after which she would discuss it ith which are accepted the idea with en	the book to to some of her frie	and she asked if ends.	she might pass it on the was certainly free
iscuss. She took the book and nothing more was said until, having had the book for several weeks, stopped at house one day to tell him that she still had the book and intended to return it very soon, told her not to worry because he had written to a rriend of his in the states requesting an additional copy.  3. On the leth when came to conversation was entirely in a light vein until ust before they were to depart. then told that he had received his additional copy of Dr. Zhivago and asked her if she would trade copies with him since the new copy was discover to have been printed in the Russian language. The had obtained at the Brussels Fair in the hope could be had obtained at the Brussels Fair in the hope could be had obtained at the Brussels Fair in the hope could be had obtained at the Russians. We was about to return the book when he remembered and the previous discussion concerning assing the book to the Russians. We was about to return the book when he was the book on to one of her acquaintances and then discuss twith him or her later on. She was cautioned not to mention hat she had obtained the book from an American as it might appear to the Russians to be an act of provocation which might ause her embarrassment. It was explained to her that she could ell them that a copy which she would discuss it it it we have no idea to whom the would discuss it it it we have no idea to whom the book but we will keep you advised when she discusses the atter with us.  "February 1959 istribution:  SR 2 FE NEA 2  FE NEA 2  FE NEA 2  FE NEA 2	to do so and sugges	Sted in a joking manner	that she give the hoo lasting had the book for several weeks, stopped at house one day to tell him that she still had the book and intended to return it very soon. It told her look and intended to return it very soon. It told her look and intended to return it very soon. It told her look and intended to return it very soon. It told her look and intended to return it very soon. It told her look and intended to return it very soon. It told her look and intended to return it very soon. It told her look and intended to return it very soon. It told her look and it had the had sere to depart. It then told that he had received his additional copy of Dr. Zhivago and asked her if she would trade copies with him since the new copy was discover to have been printed in the Russian language. It leads the brussels Fair in the hope that had obtained at the Brussels Fair in the hope to could see it. It is said he was about to return the book when he membered the book to the Russians. It was explained to to mention hat she had obtained the book from an American as it might apear to the Russians to be an act of provocation which might ause her embarrassment. It was explained to her that she could lead the might are and purchased the copy which she would discuss it it it was explained to her that she could hen compare their reactions, after which she would discuss it it it. We have no idea to whom the went to the Brussels and hen compare their reactions, after which she would discuss it it. We have no idea to whom the will give he have no idea to whom the discusses the latter with us.  The provided the provided when she discusses the latter with us.	to one of her Russ:	ian Irlends in the Sovie	et Embassy to read and house one day to tell him that she still had the not know and intended to return it very soon. It told her not to worry because he had written to a rriend of his in the litates requesting an additional copy.  3. On the lith when reresation was entirely in a light vein until out before they rere to depart. It then told that he had received his additional copy of Dr. Zhivago and asked her if the would trade copies with him since the new copy was discover to have been printed in the Russian language. Triend had sent the book on with a note stating that English anguage copies were unavailable and so he sent on a copy which is it. I said he was about to return the book when he membered and the previous discussion concerning assing the book to the Russians. Suggested that she had obtained the book from an American as it might apear to the Russians to be an act of provocation which might ause her embarrassment. It was explained to her that she could hen that had obtained the copy which she would discuss it in and purchased the copy which she would discuss it in and purchased the copy which she would discuss it in the had obtained the previous discussion which might ause her embarrassment. It was explained to her that she could be an act of provocation which might ause her embarrassment. It was explained to her that she could be copy to the ook to both a Soviet and White Russian and hen compare their reactions, after which she would discuss it in the book but we will keep you advised when she discusses the atter with us.  7 February 1959  istribution:  SR 2 FE NEA 2 FE NEA 2 FE NEA 2 FE NEA 2 FE	arscuss. She took	the book and nothing mo	ore was said until,
3. On the 18th when came to came to conversation was entirely in a light vein until must before they then told that he had received his additional copy of Dr. Zhivago and asked her if the would trade copies with him since the new copy was discover to have been printed in the Russian language. Triend had sent the book on with a note stating that English anguage copies were unavailable and so he sent on a copy which is eit. said he was about to return the book when he assing the book to the Russians. Suggested that she ass the book on to one of her acquaintances and then discuss twith him or her later on. She was cautioned not to mention hat she had obtained the book from an American as it might apear to the Russians to be an act of provocation which might ausse her embarrassment. It was explained to her that she could ell them that accepted the idea with enthusiasm and said me would give the book to both a Soviet and White Russian and hen compare their reactions, after which she would discuss it ithe book but we will keep you advised when she discusses the atter with us.  The February 1959  istribution:  SR 2 FE NEA 2  FE NEA 2  FE NEA 2  FE NEA 2  FE NEA 2  FE NEA 2	house	one day to tell him that	stopped at
3. On the 18th when came to came to conversation was entirely in a light vein until lust before they then told that he had received his additional copy of Dr. Zhivago and asked her if the would trade copies with him since the new copy was discover to have been printed in the Russian language. Triend had sent the book on with a note stating that English anguage copies were unavailable and so he sent on a copy which the had obtained at the Brussels Fair in the hope coult ise it. said he was about to return the book when he was sing the book to the Russians. Suggested that she was stated book on to one of her acquaintances and then discuss the with him or her later on. She was cautioned not to mention hat she had obtained the book from an American as it might apear to the Russians to be an act of provocation which might ause her embarrassment. It was explained to her that she could ell them that air and purchased the copy which she would give the book to both a Soviet and White Russian and hen compare their reactions, after which she would discuss it ith he book but we will keep you advised when she discusses the atter with us.  The provided the idea with she would discuss it ith he have no idea to whom will give the book but we will keep you advised when she discusses the atter with us.	book and intended t	to return it very soon.	told han
3. On the 18th when reresation was entirely in a light vein until oust before they received his additional copy of Dr. Zhivago and asked her if she would trade copies with him since the new copy was discover to have been printed in the Russian language. Triend had sent the book on with a note stating that English anguage copies were unavailable and so he sent on a copy which he had obtained at the Brussels Fair in the hope coult see it. said he was about to return the book when he remembered and the previous discussion concerning assing the book to the Russians. suggested that she asset he book on to one of her acquaintances and then discuss the with him or her later on. She was cautioned not to mention hat she had obtained the book from an American as it might apear to the Russians to be an act of provocation which might ause her embarrassment. It was explained to her that she coulcell them that accepted the idea with enthusiasm and said ne would give the book to both a Soviet and White Russian and hen compare their reactions, after which she would discuss it ith We have no idea to whom will give he book but we will keep you advised when she discusses the atter with us.  7 February 1959  istribution:  SR 2 FE NEA 2  FE NEA 2  FE NEA 2  FE NEA 2	not to worry becaus	se he had written to a	riend of his in the
rersation was entirely in a light vein until nust before they here to depart.  then told that he had the received his additional copy of Dr. Zhivago and asked her if the would trade copies with him since the new copy was discover to have been printed in the Russian language. Triend had sent the book on with a note stating that English anguage copies were unavailable and so he sent on a copy which the had obtained at the Brussels Fair in the hope could see it. said he was about to return the book when he emembered and the previous discussion concerning assing the book to the Russians. suggested that she ass the book on to one of her acquaintances and then discuss the with him or her later on. She was cautioned not to mention hat she had obtained the book from an American as it might apear to the Russians to be an act of provocation which might ause her embarrassment. It was explained to her that she could lell them that accepted the idea with enthusiasm and said the would give the book to both a Soviet and White Russian and hen compare their reactions, after which she would discuss it ith we have no idea to whom will give he book but we will keep you advised when she discusses the atter with us.  7 February 1959  istribution:  SR 2 FE NEA 2 FE NEA 2 FE NEA 2	states requesting a	an additional copy.
rersation was entirely in a light vein until nust before they here to depart.  then told that he had the received his additional copy of Dr. Zhivago and asked her if the would trade copies with him since the new copy was discover to have been printed in the Russian language. Triend had sent the book on with a note stating that English anguage copies were unavailable and so he sent on a copy which the had obtained at the Brussels Fair in the hope could see it. said he was about to return the book when he emembered and the previous discussion concerning assing the book to the Russians. suggested that she ass the book on to one of her acquaintances and then discuss the with him or her later on. She was cautioned not to mention hat she had obtained the book from an American as it might apear to the Russians to be an act of provocation which might ause her embarrassment. It was explained to her that she could lell them that accepted the idea with enthusiasm and said the would give the book to both a Soviet and White Russian and hen compare their reactions, after which she would discuss it ith we have no idea to whom will give he book but we will keep you advised when she discusses the atter with us.  7 February 1959  istribution:  SR 2 FE NEA 2 FE NEA 2 FE NEA 2	3. On the 18+	th when	. +0
then told that he had received his additional copy of Dr. Zhivago and asked her if the would trade copies with him since the new copy was discover to have been printed in the Russian language. Priend had sent the book on with a note stating that English and sent the Brussels Fair in the hope could be had obtained at the Brussels Fair in the hope sasing the book to the Russians.  Is a said he was about to return the book when he membered and the previous discussion concerning sassing the book to the Russians.  Ass the book on to one of her acquaintances and then discuss the with him or her later on. She was cautioned not to mention hat she had obtained the book from an American as it might apear to the Russians to be an act of provocation which might ause her embarrassment. It was explained to her that she could ell them that are copy which she will discuss it in the would give the book to both a Soviet and White Russian and hen compare their reactions, after which she would discuss it it it.  We have no idea to whom will give he book but we will keep you advised when she discusses the atter with us.  7 February 1959  istribution:  SR 2 FE NEA 2  FE NEA 2  FE NEA 2  FE NEA 2			il just before they received his additional copy of Dr. Zhivago and asked her if the would trade copies with him since the new copy was discover to have been printed in the Russian language. Triend had sent the book on with a note stating that English anguage copies were unavailable and so he sent on a copy which he had obtained at the Brussels Fair in the hope could see it.  Said he was about to return the book when he remembered and the previous discussion concerning assing the book to the Russians.  Suggested that she ass the book on to one of her acquaintances and then discuss the with him or her later on. She was cautioned not to mention hat she had obtained the book from an American as it might apear to the Russians to be an act of provocation which might ause her embarrassment. It was explained to her that she could ell them that went to the Brussels air and purchased the copy which she then forwarded to her accepted the idea with enthusiasm and said the would give the book to both a Soviet and White Russian and then compare their reactions, after which she would discuss it ith We have no idea to whom will give the book but we will keep you advised when she discusses the atter with us.  7 February 1959  istribution:  SR 2 FE NEA 2  FE NEA 2  FE NEA 2  FE NEA 2	were to depart.	then told	that he had
The would trade copies with him since the new copy was discover to have been printed in the Russian language.  Triend had sent the book on with a note stating that English anguage copies were unavailable and so he sent on a copy which the had obtained at the Brussels Fair in the hope could see it.  Said he was about to return the book when he remembered and the previous discussion concerning susgested that she asses the book on to one of her acquaintances and then discuss the with him or her later on. She was cautioned not to mention hat she had obtained the book from an American as it might appear to the Russians to be an act of provocation which might ause her embarrassment. It was explained to her that she could ell them that are copy which she then forwarded to her accepted the idea with enthusiasm and said me would give the book to both a Soviet and White Russian and then compare their reactions, after which she would discuss it ith We have no idea to whom will give the book but we will keep you advised when she discusses the atter with us.  7 February 1959  istribution:  SR 2 FE NEA 2  FE NEA 2  FE NEA 2  FE NEA 2	received his additi	ional copy of Dr. Zhivas	o and asked her if riend had sent the book on with a note stating that English anguage copies were unavailable and so he sent on a copy which he had obtained at the Brussels Fair in the hope coulcise it. said he was about to return the book when he emembered and the previous discussion concerning assing the book to the Russians. suggested that she ass the book on to one of her acquaintances and then discuss t with him or her later on. She was cautioned not to mention hat she had obtained the book from an American as it might apear to the Russians to be an act of provocation which might ause her embarrassment. It was explained to her that she coulcied them that went to the Brussels air and purchased the copy which she then forwarded to her accepted the idea with enthusiasm and said then compare their reactions, after which she would discuss it it it we have no idea to whom will give he book but we will keep you advised when she discusses the atter with us.  7 February 1959  istribution:  SR 2 FE NEA 2	sne would trade cop	oles with him since the	new copy was discover anguage copies were unavailable and so he sent on a copy which he had obtained at the Brussels Fair in the hope coult said he was about to return the book when he remembered and the previous discussion concerning assing the book to the Russians. suggested that she ass the book on to one of her acquaintances and then discuss t with him or her later on. She was cautioned not to mention hat she had obtained the book from an American as it might apear to the Russians to be an act of provocation which might ause her embarrassment. It was explained to her that she could ell them that are copy which she then forwarded to her accepted the idea with enthusiasm and said the would give the book to both a Soviet and White Russian and hen compare their reactions, after which she would discuss it ith the weather with us.  We have no idea to whom will give he book but we will keep you advised when she discusses the atter with us.  SR 2 FE NEA 2 FE	to have been printe friend had sent the	ed in the Kussian langua	ge.
se it. said he was about to return the book when he seemembered and the previous discussion concerning assing the book to the Russians. suggested that she ass the book on to one of her acquaintances and then discuss t with him or her later on. She was cautioned not to mention hat she had obtained the book from an American as it might apear to the Russians to be an act of provocation which might ause her embarrassment. It was explained to her that she could ell them that are copy which she then forwarded to her accepted the idea with enthusiasm and said men compare their reactions, after which she would discuss it in the book but we will keep you advised when she discusses the atter with us.  SR 2 FE NEA 2 NEA 2 NEA 2 NEA 2 SI SE 2 NEA 2 NEA 2 SE SE S	language copies wer	e unavailable and so be	ating that English said he was about to return the book when he membered and the previous discussion concerning assing the book to the Russians.  ass the book on to one of her acquaintances and then discuss twith him or her later on. She was cautioned not to mention hat she had obtained the book from an American as it might apear to the Russians to be an act of provocation which might ause her embarrassment. It was explained to her that she could ell them that are copy which she then forwarded to her accepted the idea with enthusiasm and said me would give the book to both a Soviet and White Russian and hen compare their reactions, after which she would discuss it in the book but we will keep you advised when she discusses the atter with us.  SR 2 FE NEA 2 FE	ne had obtained at	the Brussels Fair in th	e hope   could and the previous discussion concerning assing the book to the Russians.  suggested that she sass the book on to one of her acquaintances and then discuss t with him or her later on. She was cautioned not to mention hat she had obtained the book from an American as it might apear to the Russians to be an act of provocation which might ause her embarrassment. It was explained to her that she could ell them that accepted the idea with enthusiasm and said ne would give the book to both a Soviet and White Russian and hen compare their reactions, after which she would discuss it ith we have no idea to whom will give he book but we will keep you advised when she discusses the atter with us.  7 February 1959  istribution:  SR 2 FE NEA 2	use it.	sai d he was about to re	turn the book when he ass the book on to one of her acquaintances and then discuss t with him or her later on. She was cautioned not to mention hat she had obtained the book from an American as it might apear to the Russians to be an act of provocation which might ause her embarrassment. It was explained to her that she could ell them that are accepted the idea with enthusiasm and said ne would give the book to both a Soviet and White Russian and hen compare their reactions, after which she would discuss it it we have no idea to whom will give he book but we will keep you advised when she discusses the atter with us.  7 February 1959  istribution:  SR 2 FE NEA 2	remembered	and the previous di	scussion concerning
t with him or her later on. She was cautioned not to mention hat she had obtained the book from an American as it might apear to the Russians to be an act of provocation which might ause her embarrassment. It was explained to her that she could ell them that are copy which she then forwarded to her accepted the idea with enthusiasm and said me would give the book to both a Soviet and White Russian and hen compare their reactions, after which she would discuss it ith we have no idea to whom will give he book but we will keep you advised when she discusses the atter with us.  7 February 1959  istribution:  SR 2 FE NEA 2 FE	pass the book on to	or one of hom accommend	suggested that she hat she had obtained the book from an American as it might apear to the Russians to be an act of provocation which might ause her embarrassment. It was explained to her that she could ell them that went to the Brussels air and purchased the copy which she then forwarded to her accepted the idea with enthusiasm and said me would give the book to both a Soviet and White Russian and hen compare their reactions, after which she would discuss it ith we have no idea to whom will give he book but we will keep you advised when she discusses the atter with us.  7 February 1959  istribution:  SR 2 FE NEA 2 FE	it with him or her	later on. She was can't	ioned not to montion ear to the Russians to be an act of provocation which might ause her embarrassment. It was explained to her that she could ell them that went to the Brussels air and purchased the copy which she then forwarded to her accepted the idea with enthusiasm and said ne would give the book to both a Soviet and White Russian and hen compare their reactions, after which she would discuss it it we have no idea to whom will give he book but we will keep you advised when she discusses the atter with us.  7 February 1959  istribution:  SR 2 FE NEA 2 FE		viie was caut	rican as it might anause her embarrassment. It was explained to her that she could ell them that air and purchased the copy which she then forwarded to her accepted the idea with enthusiasm and said ne would give the book to both a Soviet and White Russian and hen compare their reactions, after which she would discuss it ith We have no idea to whom will give he book but we will keep you advised when she discusses the atter with us.  7 February 1959  istribution:  SR 2 FE NEA 2 FE	that she had obtain	ied the book from an Ame air and purchased the copy which she then forwarded to her accepted the idea with enthusiasm and said he would give the book to both a Soviet and White Russian and hen compare their reactions, after which she would discuss it ith We have no idea to whom will give he book but we will keep you advised when she discusses the atter with us.  7 February 1959  istribution:  SR 2 FE NEA 2 FE	that she had obtain bear to the Russian	is to be an act of provo	cation which might accepted the idea with enthusiasm and said ne would give the book to both a Soviet and White Russian and hen compare their reactions, after which she would discuss it it.  We have no idea to whom will give he book but we will keep you advised when she discusses the atter with us.  7 February 1959  istribution:  SR 2 FE NEA 2 FE	that she had obtain pear to the Russian cause her embarrass	is to be an act of provo	cation which might to her that she could me would give the book to both a Soviet and White Russian and hen compare their reactions, after which she would discuss it it. We have no idea to whom will give he book but we will keep you advised when she discusses the atter with us.  7 February 1959  istribution:  SR 2 FE NEA 2 FE	that she had obtain pear to the Russian cause her embarrass cell them that	s to be an act of provo ment. It was explained	cation which might to her that she could went to the Brussels hen compare their reactions, after which she would discuss it  ith	that she had obtain pear to the Russian cause her embarrass cell them that	is to be an act of provoment. It was explained the copy which she then	cation which might to her that she could went to the Brussels forwarded to her
We have no idea to whom will give he book but we will keep you advised when she discusses the atter with us.  7 February 1959  istribution:  SR 2 FE NEA 2 FE	that she had obtain pear to the Russian cause her embarrass cell them that Fair and purchased	s to be an act of provo ment. It was explained the copy which she then accepted the idea wit	cation which might to her that she could went to the Brussels forwarded to her h enthusiasm and said atter with us.  7 February 1959  istribution:  SR 2 FE NEA 2	that she had obtain pear to the Russian cause her embarrass tell them that Fair and purchased she would give the then compare their	the copy which she then accepted the idea wit book to both a Soviet a reactions, after which	cation which might to her that she could went to the Brussels forwarded to her h enthusiasm and said nd White Russian and
7 February 1959  istribution:  SR 2 FE NEA 2	chat she had obtain pear to the Russian cause her embarrass cell them that Fair and purchased she would give the chen compare their with	the copy which she then accepted the idea wit book to both a Soviet a reactions, after which have no idea to whom	cation which might to her that she could went to the Brussels forwarded to her henthusiasm and said nd White Russian and she would discuss it will give istribution:  SR 2 FE NEA 2	that she had obtain pear to the Russian cause her embarrass cell them that Fair and purchased she would give the chen compare their with We be book but we will	the copy which she then accepted the idea wit book to both a Soviet a reactions, after which have no idea to whom	cation which might to her that she could went to the Brussels forwarded to her henthusiasm and said nd White Russian and she would discuss it will give istribution:  SR 2 FE NEA 2	chat she had obtain pear to the Russian cause her embarrass cell them that Fair and purchased she would give the chen compare their with	the copy which she then accepted the idea wit book to both a Soviet a reactions, after which have no idea to whom	cation which might to her that she could went to the Brussels forwarded to her henthusiasm and said nd White Russian and she would discuss it will give
istribution:  SR 2 FE NEA 2	that she had obtain pear to the Russian cause her embarrass cell them that Fair and purchased she would give the chen compare their with We be book but we will	the copy which she then accepted the idea wit book to both a Soviet a reactions, after which have no idea to whom	cation which might to her that she could went to the Brussels forwarded to her henthusiasm and said nd White Russian and she would discuss it will give
istribution:  SR 2 FE NEA 2	that she had obtain pear to the Russian cause her embarrass cell them that Fair and purchased she would give the chen compare their with We be book but we will	the copy which she then accepted the idea wit book to both a Soviet a reactions, after which have no idea to whom	cation which might to her that she could went to the Brussels forwarded to her henthusiasm and said nd White Russian and she would discuss it will give
istribution:  SR 2 FE NEA 2	that she had obtain pear to the Russian cause her embarrass cell them that Fair and purchased she would give the chen compare their with We be book but we will	the copy which she then accepted the idea wit book to both a Soviet a reactions, after which have no idea to whom	cation which might to her that she could went to the Brussels forwarded to her henthusiasm and said nd White Russian and she would discuss it will give
SR 2 FE NEA 2	that she had obtain pear to the Russian cause her embarrass tell them that Fair and purchased then compare their with We will be book but we will eatter with us.	the copy which she then accepted the idea wit book to both a Soviet a reactions, after which have no idea to whom	cation which might to her that she could went to the Brussels forwarded to her henthusiasm and said nd White Russian and she would discuss it will give
SR 2 FE NEA 2	that she had obtain pear to the Russian cause her embarrass cell them that Fair and purchased she would give the chen compare their with We be book but we will	the copy which she then accepted the idea wit book to both a Soviet a reactions, after which have no idea to whom	cation which might to her that she could went to the Brussels forwarded to her henthusiasm and said nd White Russian and she would discuss it will give chat she had obtain pear to the Russian cause her embarrass cell them that rair and purchased she would give the chen compare their with We che book but we will eatter with us.	the copy which she then accepted the idea wit book to both a Soviet a reactions, after which have no idea to whom	cation which might to her that she could went to the Brussels forwarded to her henthusiasm and said nd White Russian and she would discuss it will give that she had obtain pear to the Russian cause her embarrass tell them that Fair and purchased then compare their with We will be book but we will eatter with us.	the copy which she then accepted the idea wit book to both a Soviet a reactions, after which have no idea to whom	cation which might to her that she could went to the Brussels forwarded to her henthusiasm and said nd White Russian and she would discuss it will give particular to the second secon	chat she had obtain pear to the Russian cause her embarrass cell them that Fair and purchased she would give the chen compare their with We will be book but we will eatter with us.  27 February 1959  Distribution:	the copy which she then accepted the idea wit book to both a Soviet a reactions, after which have no idea to whom	cation which might to her that she could went to the Brussels forwarded to her henthusiasm and said nd White Russian and she would discuss it will give 51-28, 51-28A AND 51-29	hat she had obtain ear to the Russian ause her embarrass ell them that air and purchased he would give the nen compare their he book but we will atter with us.  Y February 1959  istribution:	the copy which she then accepted the idea wit book to both a Soviet a reactions, after which have no idea to whom I keep you advised when	cation which might to her that she could went to the Brussels forwarded to her henthusiasm and said nd White Russian and she would discuss it will give

ROUTING AND RECORD SHEET

INSTRUCTIONS: Use officer designations in the "TO" column. Number each comment to correspond with the number in the "TO" column. Draw a line across the sheet under each comment. Each officer should date and initial (check mark insufficient) before further routing. This Routing and Record sheet should NOT be removed from the attached RECORD document.

FROM: RIAN						DOCUMENT NUMBER
•	Ber 1					DOCUMENT DATE
		ROOM	DA	ATE.	OFFICER'S
	0	NO.	RECEIVED	FORWARDED	INITIALS	COMMENTS
•	1:		12 MAR 1953	16 MAR 1959		OTE: If a copy or attachments are removed from the atched document, note the location of the copy and/or attachent hereon. If this RECORD COPY is to be retained in the tiles at the Desk, call the Central File Section for per :			manent loan.
			17,MAR
					·
			25,MA	P
			Z3195
•						FILE TITLE
						ME MERONANA
						FILE NUMBER
						ENCLOSURE
· F	RI/FI					DATE PROCESSED INDEX

Approved for Release: 2012/09/19